Market Place of the Munnimakers

Fast as They Sell One Thing They Find Another Thing to Advertise. It Must Pay the Advertiser or There Wouldn't Be Any Advertisers. It Must Pay the Buyers or There Wouldn't Be Any Buyers. If It Pays Them It Will Pay YOU To Trade in the Market Place of the Munnimakers.

Quick! Hurry!

These advertisers in the classified columns of the Standard put the right price on the articles or services they offer you, and thus they land quick orders and are always busy. They are "Munnimakers" because they offer you special values. But in every one of the Standard Munnimaker ads there is an advantage for the seller—and just as big an advantage for the buyer. Some of the best offers are snapped up within a few hours after they are printed. Offers as good as that are just as much news as the news that is printed on the front page. Every day, without fail, make it a point to turn to the little Munnimaker ads in the classified columns of the Standard, and get the news of the special business offers of the day. Do this for your own sake, and for the sake of your purse, and your business. Get the habit.

Dear Mr. Munnimaker: Care The Standard Classified Columns.

Through a little Munnimaker Classified Ad in The Standard, I disposed of my late husband's books and pictures at a good price.

Yours truly,
A WIDOW.

Write Mr. Munnimaker, care of The Standard, or phone him, No. 56, whenever you want anything.

PROSPECTS OF FOOT-BALL BOYS

Now that school time is approaching, the gridiron heroes are getting out their war paint ready to daub it on and go into the fray.

Prospects at the State university are not the brightest, because it has lost its assistant physical director and its team captain, and if Coach Maddock could get off he would do so.

The Salt Lake High school will have practically the same team as it had last year and it expects to make a showing.

Conditions at the Ogden High school are favorable. One or two of last year's men will not appear in the lineup this year, but it is thought that these places will be filled with men who will be a credit to the school, and there is little worry about victories.

With an early start at practice and with Coach George Brown at the helm, Ogden High is looking forward to a most successful season. There is plenty of good material in sight and Brown is the man who can get the work out of them. The boys have already discarded their pipes and are easing up on the cake and pie. They intend to put in some good hard licks this year and regain the laurels last season.

Coach Brown played on the University of Utah football team and made an enviable record. He has had experience under two of the best coaches who ever ran a team and is thoroughly competent to give the boys the best of training.
